SENATOR HUNTER HELPS FAMILIES THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

LANSING – Sen. Tupac A. Hunter (D-Detroit) will be assisting several parents in need of help this holiday season by delivering gifts to deserving families' homes from 1-3 p.m. on Monday, December 24th to help them prepare for the upcoming holiday.

“It is so easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of the holidays,” Sen. Hunter said. “I wanted to make sure to take the time to slow down and really give back to those who are in need”.

The Senator contacted several families and asked if he could help surprise their children with some needed gifts. The parents were asked to provide a “wish list” of holiday gifts. Many of these individuals sincerely asked if they could simply be provided a holiday dinner for their families. Others asked for basic necessities like coats, boots, and winter clothing for their children.

"It was so humbling to see such needs go unnoticed during this special time of year," Said Sen. Hunter. "And it's so rewarding to be able to help."
